Shri P. Diwakar, Senior Advocate with Shri K. S. Pawar, Advocate for the petitioners.

Shri Sandeep Dubey, Govt. Advocate for the State/respondents.

Since the Writ Petitions No.3608/2005, 3614/2005, 3615/2005, 3616/2005, 3618/2005, 3619/2005, 3621/2005, 3638/2005, 3637/2005, 3636/2005, 3635/2005, 3627/2005, 3626/2005, 3625/2005, 3623/2005 and 3622/2005 relate to suspension of fair price shops, which were allotted to the petitioners only one month back, vide order dated 21-7-2005 on account of violation of some clauses of Public Distribution System (Control) Order, 2004 and also violation of conditions of the agreement entered into between the petitioners and the Licencing Authority, therefore, they are being disposed of by this common order.

I have heard Shri P. Diwakar, learned Senior Counsel for the petitioners.

Learned Senior Counsel for the petitioners submitted that in one day it is said that inspection of 17 shops was carried out.

During inspection, the Inspecting Authority noticed that certain registers were not found in the shops as well as fair price display notice board was not displayed and other clauses of Order, 2004 were not being complied with, and also violation of the agreement was noticed. Normally for such minor violation always fine is imposed whereas, in the present cases, drastic action has been taken. It was not physically possible to inspect so many shops in one day and it was done within one month from opening of the shops, therefore, action of respondents is arbitrary and too harsh to the petitioners. Therefore, order be stayed.

Clause-18 of the said order provides for an appeal. Even though the word 'suspension' has been used. But, from perusal of the said order, the language shows that it is almost cancellation, as such in my considered opinion, the order in question is appealable.

Therefore, the petitioners should file an appeal before the State Government, as it is evident from impugned order Annexure-P/3 that the Food Controller has passed the said order as per the orders of the Collector, within a period of 7
